I missed great wind at Sterkies this past weekend as I had a bunch commitments. I'll make sure I'm there the next time it blows as the wind inland is becoming VERY scarce. I'd like to go to Luderitz again in January 2009 time permitting, and the last 2 weeks of October for the speed event. I'm going to Langebaan 20 February 2009 for a week of kiting, this time without any broken bones I hope.
